

BRILLIANT BALLYBUNION GOES TO THE EARTH RISING FESTIVAL AT THE IRISH MUSEUM of MODERN ART (IMMA).

Friday 12th to Sunday 14th September 2025

Participants: Lisa, Gráinne, Joanne, Rena and Sailhymn, and collaborators, Seán, Karen, Antoinette, Polina & Oleksandr

Super Projects (approx. 11 people attended)

Youth Workshop with young people and Super Projects team, 11.30-12.30
Studio 9 and 10, Friday 13th

What If We Were Brilliant? (approx. 200 people)

Activation Space, Drawing and Film Installation, 10.00-19.00
Studio 9 and 10, Saturday 13th and Sunday 14th

The Future We Want to Be (approx. 23 people)

Interactive Drawing Workshop with artist Lisa Fingleton and community collaborators
Studio 10, 14.00-16.00 Saturday 13th

Sailhymn (approx. 70 people)

Seeds for Songs with Brilliant Ballybunion
Greenhouse stage, 11.30-12.30, Sunday 14th

The Birds and The Beans (approx. 50 people)

Panel and Conversation with Dr Joanne O'Brien, Seán Culhane, Grainne Toomey,
Antoinette O'Sullivan, Rena Blake, Lily Toomey, Karen Costello with Lisa Fingleton
Lecture Room, 12.15-13.15 Sunday 14th

Making Kin, Making Change (approx. 90 people)

Artist Conversation. From humpback whales to wild herbs, upland rituals to offshore resistance, join us for a rich and hopeful conversation about creative climate action, rural innovation, and the power of place-based storytelling. Hosted by Lisa Fitzsimons with Lisa Fingleton, Grace Wells, Alannah Robins and Samuel Arnold Keane
Chapel, 2.30-3.20 Sunday 14th

Artist Film Screening (approx. 200 people)

Including The Radical Art of Living and The Monto Man by Lisa Fingleton
Living Canvas Screen, 10.00-17.00, Friday 12th-Sunday 14th